2023 is an important year for DECOPUR. The company started 30 years ago in Bruges. Former owner Martine Kaesen worked very hard to get the brand DECOPUR into the market. Till today it still has the good reputation for its customer service and design. This year it will be 5 years ago I took over the company from Martine. Since then a lot has changed on the market. We moved all confection back to Belgium again after the Corona period. This year we have invested once more in the company with new colors and qualities. We believe that by keeping bringing new items DECOPUR can stay in the market for years to come. Nico Depoorter

Linen material, a timeless story rooted in belgian tradition

80% of our quality flax fibres originate in France and Belgium and together with our carefully selected colours we offer the ultimate in matching linen textiles.

The flax industry has its history rooted in South West Flanders putting the cities of Kortrijk and Bruges on the textile world map. At Decopur, we still use the finest luxurious linen fibres that nature can provide and turn them into fabrics for todays modern interior.

ABOUT DECOPUR

The subtlety of the chosen linen fibres illustrates our philosophy focused on durability and use of our Belgian natural resources.

A close-up photograph of a woman with blonde hair, looking directly at the camera from behind a white, textured fabric that she is holding up with her hands. Her eyes are visible above the fabric, and her expression is calm. The background is a soft, out-of-focus beige color.

Linen gives comfort and provides sensuous and essential notes, for a more optimistic vision of the world around us.

We experience each emotion of colour and the objects around us.

From season to season, we design our carefully chosen collection
A celebration of the creativity, brought by the the designers we work with.
